Welsh Government Housing Regulation

Regulatory Judgement

Taff Housing Association – L009

February 2017

The Welsh Ministers have powers under Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996 to regulate Registered Social Landlords in relation to the provision of housing and matters relating to governance and financial management.

The Welsh Ministers are publishing this Regulatory Judgement under sections 33A and 35 of the Housing Act 1996.

The judgement is published in accordance with the Regulatory Framework for Registered Social Landlords in Wales and the related performance standards.

<http://gov.wales/topics/housing-and-regeneration/services-and-support/regulation/regulatory-framework/?lang=en>

The judgement is based upon the Association's own evaluation of its compliance with the performance standards together with regulatory intelligence gained through on-going, co-regulatory, relationship management between the Regulator and the Association.

Basis of Judgement

This judgement is designed to provide the Registered Social Landlord, its tenants, service users and other stakeholders with an understanding of its financial viability and how well it is performing, at a specific moment in time, in relation to:

- Governance and Service Delivery
- Financial Management

The judgement must not be relied upon by any other party for any other purpose. The Registered Social Landlord is responsible for the completeness and accuracy of information provided to the Regulator.

Profile

Taff Housing Association Limited (“Taff” or “the Association”) is a traditional; community based housing association established in 1975 and is registered under the Cooperative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 with charitable rules.

Taff has over 1,300 homes in the Canton, Fairwater, Grangetown, Riverside and Butetown areas of Cardiff, as well as specialist supported housing projects for young women in Roath and Canton.

As well as general needs housing, the Association provides housing support, including a variety of specialist support services, to over 1,000 service users in Cardiff and the surrounding areas. It also provides around 240 supported housing properties in South East Wales. In 2013, the Association set up a new division, Adore Lettings, letting and managing properties on behalf of other landlords.
